A SEPTEMBER TO REMEMBER

Don't throw away plastic bags,
give them to me to reuse.

I'll hang onto them until you need to use them again.

SUSTAINABILITY CONTEST

Reusing milk jugs

Create fun for the entire family — reuse your milk jugs!

Here are a few creative ideas for reusing milk jugs.

Have fun with the weather

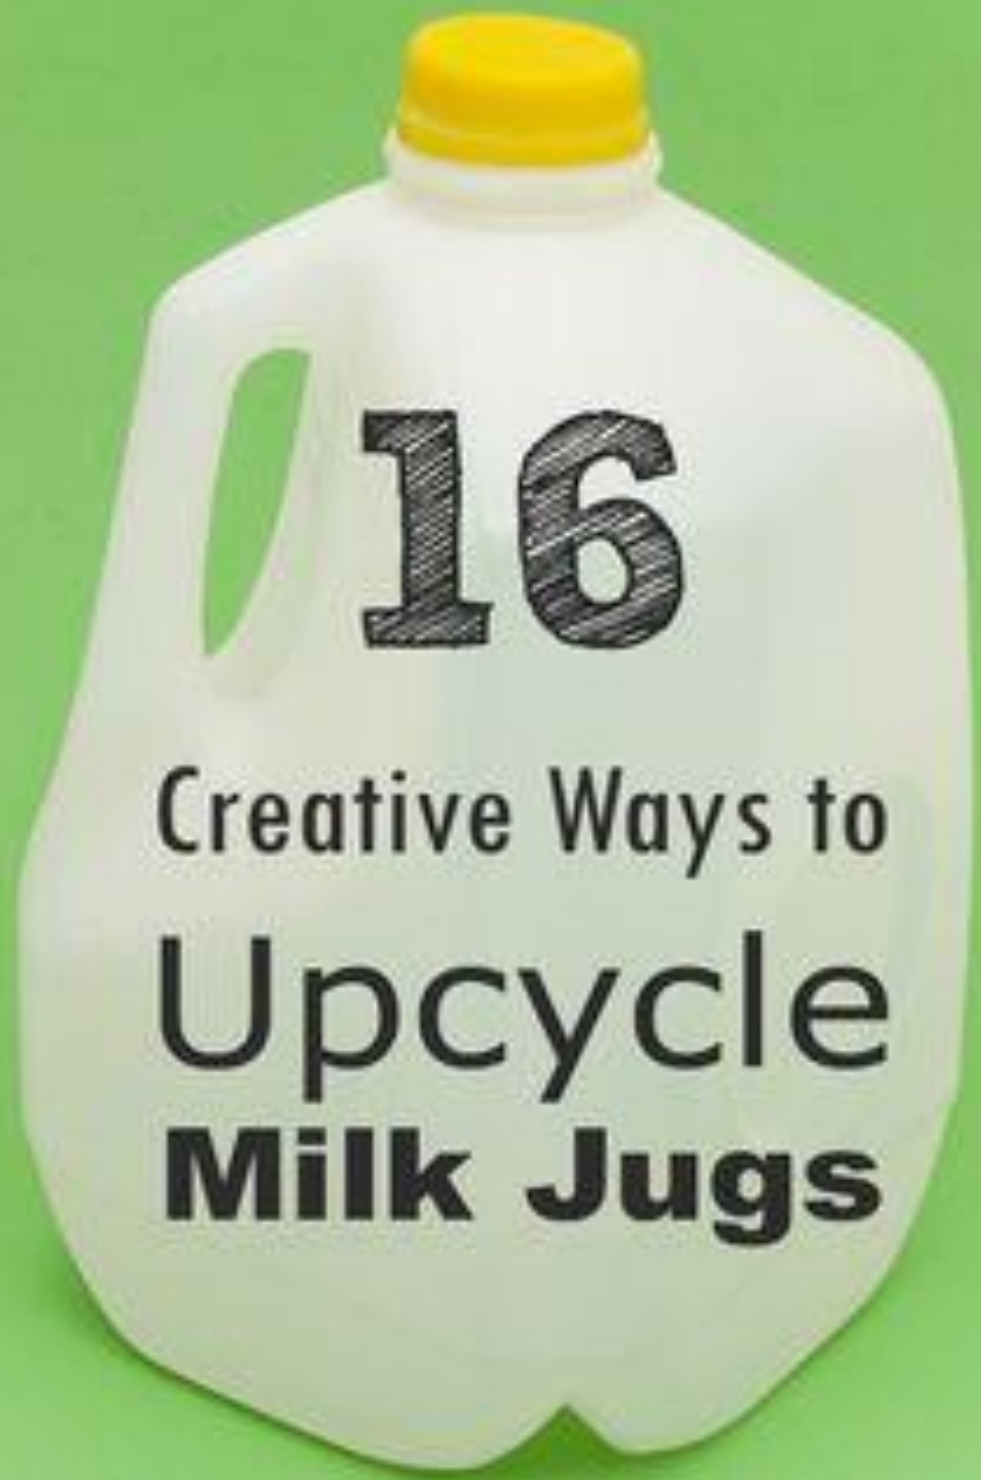

Milk jugs can be used as a rain saver or a wind sock. These items are easy to create using common household tools.

Self Expression

Everyone has access to milk jugs.

Don't chuck them,
CREATE WITH THEM!

Create a reusable sandwich wrap

Save the environment and money on the purchase of plastic sandwich bags.

Decorate and personalize it with a name so no one else takes a bite!

Ghost Milk Jugs

Halloween is just around the corner. Milk jugs are perfect for ghostly decorations, and your kids will have a blast making them. Simply draw a face with a black marker, fill the jug with colored water, and drop in a glow stick.

Trick or Treat

Make other Halloween decorations that can be used year after year.

Candy/Treat Holders

All of these characters are made from milk jugs. They are non-breakable and fun for the whole family.

Milk Jug Witch

Create a witch's head with a milk jug, and cut a trash bag into strips for hair.

Make a handy container for supplies

Use a milk jug to organize your tools and supplies.

Vertical Blinds

Add some ambience with decorative window shades made from used milk jugs.

Milk Jug Donkey

Use the wooden stick from an old broom, and the brush bristles for its hair.

Paint Tray and Paint Brush Holder

This is a perfect solution for touch-up paint jobs. There's a place for your brush, and you can discard the entire tray and holder when the job is complete.

Floating Votive Candle Holders

You'll make a big splash at your next summer pool party with these festive floating luminaries using LED lights.

For indoor or outdoor use

Perfect to store plastic grocery bags, hold sweets and treats, or as holiday decorations.

The options are endless.
