

Bill Maddux — Executive Managing Director

Bill Maddux is an executive managing director of Greystar® Real Estate Partners, LLC and serves as a member of the Greystar Investment Committee, Operating Committee, and Board of Directors. He is responsible for the management oversight of the company's regional operating businesses and service operations, and is integral in implementing executional standards and growth initiatives across the platform.

Prior to joining Greystar in 1999, Bill held numerous positions with the Trammell Crow Company including chief operating officer for the eastern United States, where he oversaw full-service operations in 15 cities, and was a member of the company's executive committee.

After attending the University of Oklahoma, Bill began his career as a leasing agent in Oklahoma City, Oklahoma with the Trammell Crow Company. Bill and his family reside in Charleston, South Carolina.

"If we have the right caliber of people – and we do; the right business plan – and we do; and the right amount of capital partners – and we do; then we're going to win."